SUNDRY MEDALS.

Some very curious.

SIZE

505 1730 Leaden Medal. Struck at Amsterdam to commemorate the second centennial anniversary of the Confession of Augsburg. Obv. Bust of Martin Luther. Head to right surrounded by seven coats of arms of the Augsburg Confessors. Rev. Allegory representing "Triumph of Truth." In fair condition and desirable, although in Lead 39

506 Another very interesting Medal. Obv. "Doctor Martinus Lutherus, Theologiæ." Head to right. In inner circle, "Jubileum secundum." Rev. "Catherina von Bora D. Luthers Frau Gemahlin." In inner circle, "Successib fæcundum." Head to left. The only Medal I have ever seen of Luther's wife. Fine and very desirable, in my estimation, for a collector of the Medals connected with Luther. Mixed Metal 28
